

Instructors Needed!

Phoenix Parks and Recreation is looking for talented people, just like YOU, to bring classes and events to our communities.

We are looking for...

Creative & collaborative people who are interested in instructing classes in the following areas:

- Arts & Crafts
- Dance & Music
- Sports & Fitness
- Education & Development
- Culture & Language
- Computers & Coding
- Culinary & Lifestyle
- ...the class you can teach!

Get Started

Attend an informational session explaining the process for getting started:

In-person Session

Saturday, May 3, 2025

10:00 a.m.

Memorial Hall @ Steele

Indian School Park

Virtual Session

Friday, May 9, 2025

12:00 p.m.

WebEx link:

<https://bit.ly/430Hc9B>

or Scan QR to join:

Why partner with us?

Meaningful - Inspire others with your gifts!

Flexible - Make it work with your life!

Great Compensation - Negotiable and fair!

Inclusive & Diverse - Different is good!

Independent* - You're a partner! Not an employee.

*We contract individuals, LLCs, small businesses and corporations.

Register today!

To get started, attend one of our above info sessions or visit phoenix.gov/parks.

Contact the Phoenix Parks and Recreation team at (602) 262-6862 or email receptionist.pks@phoenix.gov.

