One Dead After Early Morning Motorcycle Collision

(May 27, 2025): Detectives are investigating a single-motorcycle collision that left a man dead on scene.

On May 27, 2025, around 02:30 a.m., officers responded to a vehicle collision near the 38000 block of North New River Road in north Phoenix. When officers arrived, they were directed to a motorcycle off the roadway and an adult male with obvious signs of injury nearby. The fire department responded and determined the man had died from his injuries on scene.

Detectives responded to investigate the collision. Currently, there is no indication any other vehicles were involved. Investigators suspect speed may have been a factor. Next of kin notifications are pending. Any additional information remains part of an ongoing investigation.
