Hit and Run Collision Leaves Man Dead

(January 19, 2025) Detectives are investigating a collision that left a man dead and a suspect outstanding.

On January 19, 2025, just after 3:15 a.m., officers responded to a hit and run call, involving a pedestrian, near 41st Avenue and Thunderbird Road. When officers arrived, they found a man on the roadway with obvious signs of trauma. Officers were told the suspect vehicle left the area after the collision. The fire department responded to provide aid but determined the man had died on scene. Officers were unable to locate the suspect vehicle.

Detectives responded to take over the investigation. Preliminary information suggests the pedestrian, for unknown reasons, was laying on Thunderbird Road when he was ran over by a passing vehicle heading eastbound on Thunderbird Road. The vehicle briefly stopped, but then left the area and continued eastbound. Investigators continue to process the evidence collected on scene.

Additional details about the collision remain part of the ongoing investigation. Next of kin notifications are pending. Anyone with information is urged to call Phoenix police or Silent Witness, if they wish to be anonymous.
