Man Riding Motorized Bike Dies After Collision

(January 12, 2025) Phoenix Police detectives are investigating a Central Phoenix collision that left a motorized bike rider dead.

On January 12, 2025, around 2:10 a.m., officers responded to the area of 23rd Street and Washington Street regarding an unknown trouble. As officers were responding, they learned that a man was on the ground and appeared to be injured. When officers arrived, they located the adult male with serious injuries. The man did not survive these injuries and was pronounced deceased on scene. A motorized bike was found near the scene on Washington Street.

Detectives responded to take over the investigation. Preliminary information suggests that the man was riding a motorized bike westbound on the northside of Washington Street when he struck a nearby pole causing severe injuries. Additional details about the collision remain part of the ongoing investigation.
