Hit and Run Collision Leaves Pedestrian Dead

(January 21, 2025) Phoenix Police detectives are investigating an overnight collision that left a man dead.

On January 21, 2025, around 2:45 a.m., officers responded to the area of 46th Street and Broadway Road regarding a collision involving a pedestrian. When officers arrived, they located the adult male pedestrian, identified as 38-year-old Andrew Worley. Worley was transported to a nearby hospital with serious injuries, where he did not survive these injuries and was pronounced deceased.

Detectives responded to take over the investigation. Preliminary information suggests that Worley was crossing Broadway Road, mid-block, when he was struck by the vehicle involved, which was traveling eastbound. The vehicle involved did not remain on scene and left the area prior to police arrival. Additional details about the collision remain part of the ongoing investigation. Anyone with information is asked to call Silent Witness at 480(WITNESS) or 480(TESTIGO) and provide an anonymous tip. Rewards will be paid for information leading to an arrest in this case.
