

Museum Store Attendant

Service Summary: Museum Store Attendants independently run museum store operations during their shift. This includes welcoming visitors, answering questions about the site and objects that are for sale, conducting simple transactions, and opening and closing duties. The museum store is operated by the S'edav Va'aki Museum Foundation (501(c)(3)).

Supervisor: Museum Store Manager/Volunteer Coordinator

Duties:

- Provide prompt, efficient, and courteous service for SVM guests
- Welcome guests with a smile and a greeting; offer to help and respond according to their reply
- Be prepared to answer questions about the site/people/history or the objects for sale; if you don't know the answer, try pointing them to someone/a resource that might know
- Process simple cash/credit card transactions through Square POS System
- Monitor object handling to prevent breakage; carefully display objects for visitors and return to display if shown to guests but not purchased
- Maintain a clean, tidy, and welcoming space; inform supervisor if systems fail or anything breaks
